

Boys' Shoes

We advise mothers, who wish to solve the problem of shoes for their boys to try a pair of the kind the Guarantee sells. We know what a boy needs and we therefore had the manufacturers build us the strongest shoe we could get. We have them both for rough school and also dress wear, and both are guaranteed. Another point you must not overlook is that we know how and do fit the foot properly.

SOCIETY

THE ROAD

(By Clinton Scollard.)

Yonder leads the road with its dim recesses,
Beechen boughs that pleach and the leaning maples;
On and up and on through the purple shadows
Into the sunset.

Let us rise, O heart of my heart, and follow,
Follow love with all of its golden urgency
Up the road of life till it fade and vanish
Into the sunset.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

One of the jolly affairs of the week was the Halloween social given Thursday evening by the St. Clement's Social club at the parish house. Many of the guests came attired in sheets and pillow cases, and were most "ghostly" in appearance.

A jar filled with peanuts afforded an interesting guessing game, in which Harry Gilman was the prize winner.

In the game of "Questions and Answers," Miss Christa Hogarth displayed great skill and secured the prize.

Dancing was enjoyed and delicious Halloween refreshments served.

Rev. A. M. Evans, the newly appointed pastor of the Highland Park Methodist church, and family, arrived in the city yesterday.

The following musical program will be given by the First Presbyterian church choir Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock:

Anthem—"Jubilate Deo"—Shubert.
Solo—"Sancta Maria"—Faure—Mrs. Lella Moore.

Trios—"Praise Ye"—Verdi—Mr. Witte, Mrs. Witte, Mr. McNary.

Offertory—"Reverie"—Capocci.
Anthem—"Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty"—Stewart.

Solo—"Gloria"—Buzzi Becca—Parvin Witte.

Male Quartet—"Father in Heaven"—Mr. Witte, Mr. Fraser, Mr. Dick and Mr. McNary.

Gallia—Gounod—By the double quartet.

The members of the choir are Parvin Witte and Will Fraser, tenors; Mrs. Lella Moore and Mrs. Parvin Witte, sopranos; Mrs. C. E. Pollock and Miss Caroline Payne, altos; James Dick and James G. McNary, basses; Francis Moore, organist.

CLUB DANCE.

The Terpsichorean club entertained with another of its charming dances on Thursday evening at the Elks club. The spacious ball room, with its attractive appointments, formed a most effective background for the merry dancers.

The Country club orchestra supplied the music, and delicious punch was served.

Those in attendance were: Mesdames J. W. Stafford, F. B. Fillmore, Hayer, H. E. Christie, Henry Schaefer; Misses Pauline Sprinz, Kate Robinette, Louise Sanburn, Hattie May Lorets, Bertha Pool, Mary Pool, Julia Pool, Lucille Smith, Ethel Brown, Ruth Howard, Frances Mayfield, Sara Dean, Ceral Christy, Lillian Lindsey; Messrs. A. E. Schuster, Page Kemp, K. L. Sinclair, Henry Schaefer, J. J. Wallwork, Douglas Gifford, F. B. Fillmore, F. Blair, J. W. Stafford, L. Wolfe, Lehman, J. H. Hoyt, E. E. Heid, S. Mayer, H. Dunne, Davis Mayfield, Dr. B. F. Clutter, Hal Christy, Dean, O. L. Bowen, Cowan.

The Country club dance will occur this evening at the club house.

ABOUT EL PASOANS.

In the October issue of Musical America appears a picture of Abby de Avirett, who, as a student of Ferruccio Busoni, was entertained at a garden party given by Busoni and wife to their student friends from this side of the Atlantic. Mr. de Avirett is an El Paso boy, the son of Mrs. Lizzie Avirett of this city. He is a young pianist of great promise and has given brilliant account of himself at recent recitals at Basel, Switzerland, where he has been studying for a number of months under Busoni.

Friends of Mrs. C. M. Newman will regret to know that she has been ill the past few days.

Mrs. W. G. Dunne, who has been ill, is improving.

Mrs. J. Harry Hill recently moved to this city from Marshall, Texas, and one of the board of directors for the State Congress of Mothers was appointed parliamentarian of the state, the meeting being held at Austin by Mrs. J. H. Porter, state president. Miss Blakely of the Mesa school represented the Parent Teachers' association of this city.

RETURNING EL PASOANS.

Mrs. Charity Kirk and niece, Miss Olive Davis, have returned from a three months' sojourn in California.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Marr arrived home last night from a visit of several weeks in Los Angeles and other California points.

Mrs. M. V. Merrill and daughter, Blanche, will return home tomorrow evening from a visit of several weeks in Denver and Pueblo, Colo. Miss Mabel Jones is again at home.

Dr. Harry Jordan has returned from a short trip to Hachita, N. M.

Mrs. James Findley has returned from an all summer visit at Atlantic City and other eastern coast resorts.

Don't forget the fall hats, half price at the Millinery World tonight.

DINNERS AND PARTIES.

A charming social event of the week was the tea given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. James Hunter LeNoir, in honor of her sister, Miss Bertha Stanhope.

A great profusion of cosmos in every imaginable hue adorned the home and produced a most beautiful effect. The tea table was spread with a handsome drawn work cover, and the central decoration was a bowl of white cosmos, surrounded with red leaves. Mrs. A. F. Sievers poured tea and Mrs. J. J. Pearce assisted in serving the ices.

Miss Stanhope added much to the pleasure of the affair with several beautifully rendered solos. She was accompanied by A. F. Sievers.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. LeNoir's hospitality were: Mesdames Parvin Witte, S. F. King, J. C. Ponsford, Frank Lynch, Bradford Hardie, Milton Hawkins, R. Y. Anderson, J. J. Pearce, M. P. Schuster, Bettie Halderman, W. S. Tilton, J. S. Daugherty, M. E. Elwell, D. N. Jackson, Fred Woelke, W. D. Greet, William H. F. Judd, W. R. Brown, R. C. Brooks, Hell Hale, J. J. Kaster, Henry Easter, and Mrs. Thomas Dale of Chihuahua; Mrs. W. W. Bogel of Marfa; Misses Mabel Falvey, Hermione Hawkins, May Anderson, Regina Schuster, Helen Stafford, Ora Slater, Mabel Stafford, Olga Tafel.

The Thursday Lunch club will be entertained Saturday, October 22, by Mrs. Yasbel Flato.

At a banquet given Wednesday evening the Knights of Columbus celebrated in magnificent style the landing of Columbus in America. Patriotic effluents prevailed in the decorations of the handsome lodge room of the home of the local council.

The walls were festooned with yellow and white bunting, and flags of all sizes were everywhere in evidence. The banquet tables were adorned with quantities of yellow carnations, and small potted ferns, while the head table held as a center piece a globe of the world about which circled tiny ships in imitation of the landing of the great explorer.

Joseph M. Nealon presided as toastmaster, introducing the various speakers. Those in the receiving line who stood at the head of the stairs to welcome the guests as they entered were: Mesdames J. E. Morgan, chairman of the social committee; C. E. Kelly, J. Meutman, R. J. Carson, Jack Roland, L. L. Mundy, J. Dunne, Thomas O'Keefe, M. T. Maloney, Thomas Nealon, Havenhill.

Miss Mabel Harrison entertains this evening with a dinner in honor of Miss Nellie O'Boyle, who is to be married Wednesday, October 19, to E. J. Gemoets.

AT HOME.

H. O. Dow and family have moved into their attractive new home at 2710 East Rio Grande street.

Monday afternoon, Oct. 17, from 2 to 5 o'clock, Mrs. E. L. Daniel will entertain at her residence, 1105 Nevada street, in honor of Miss Mabel Head of Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. M. P. Schuster, Providence hospital, office hours from 7 to 10 and from 2 to 5.

VISITORS IN THE CITY.

Mrs. John L. McLeary of Fort Worth is the guest of Mrs. Josephine Nations Morfitt, and will spend several weeks here.

After a two weeks' visit with her aunt, Mrs. F. S. Meyers, Miss Florence Clark has returned to her home in Beech Creek, Pa.

Mrs. C. C. James and sister, Miss Grace Harlow, are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Lindop and daughter, Miss Ada May Lindop, arrived Thursday from Dallas and will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bowen.

Lieut. Olin Ellis, U. S. A., is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. G. O. Ellis, and sisters.

En route from her home in Fort Worth to Los Angeles, to spend the winter, Mrs. Herbert Deacon is the guest for a few days of her mother, Mrs. F. A. Peak, 611 North El Paso street.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Bowman and daughter, Miss Fan Foster Bowman, will arrive in the city Monday from Uvalde and will make their future home here.

Mrs. J. H. Thornton, of Austin, Tex., is the guest of her daughter, Miss Helen Thornton, who is a teacher in the Aoy school. Mrs. Thornton is the mother of Will Thornton, special capital correspondent for a number of the leading east Texas papers and one of the best known newspapermen of the state. Mrs. Thornton will remain in El Paso for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Starker, of Pontiac, Mich., who have been spending the past year with their son, Dr. C. T. Starker, will leave for New Orleans Monday evening. They will spend some time there and at different points on their way back to Pontiac.

CARDS.

With bridge as the medium of amusement, Mrs. J. F. Coles very charmingly entertained on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Christopher Fewel.

A profusion of autumn flowers were attractively used in the adornment of the living room, while the dining room was equally beautiful with pink carnations and ferns. The refreshment table was covered with an exquisite Japanese cloth, embroidered in pink.

Mrs. Winston Pettus won the first prize—a handsome silver fern dish. The guest of honor, Mrs. Christopher Fewel, received a beautiful bronzes desk set, and the consolation prize went to Mrs. F. H. Seamon.

A dainty two-course luncheon followed the games.

Mrs. L. H. Tucker very pleasantly entertained this afternoon at bridge.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge club was entertained this morning at the home of Miss Ethel Brown.

Miss Mabel Falvey will entertain the Wednesday Bridge club next week.
